Warwickshire Fire and Rescue Service's next recruitment campaign

Dear All,

I hope this message finds you well.

We are excited to announce the launch Warwickshire Fire and Rescue Service's next recruitment campaign: "New Year, New Career. Join Warwickshire Fire and Rescue." This campaign kicked off on 6th January 2025 and aims to inspire and empower individuals from all walks of life—particularly women, young people, and those from underrepresented groups—to take the first step toward a rewarding career in the fire and rescue service.

As you know, the future of our service depends on attracting the best talent to protect and serve our communities for years to come. This is why we're reaching out to you as a trusted partner. Your support will play a vital role in amplifying our campaign and ensuring its success.

We would greatly appreciate it if you could:

Promote the campaign through your social media channels by resharing our posts and encouraging your followers to spread the word.

Include details in your newsletters to reach as many potential applicants as possible.

Share our campaign messages with your networks, helping us inspire the next generation of Warwickshire firefighters.

By working together, we can ensure that this campaign reaches every corner of our community and gives everyone the opportunity to consider a future with Warwickshire Fire and Rescue Service.

Your support will help us:

Break down barriers and stereotypes surrounding firefighting careers.

Attract diverse candidates who reflect the vibrant communities we serve.

Build a workforce that is strong, inclusive, and ready to face the challenges of tomorrow.

Thank you in advance for your support in helping us spread the word about this critical recruitment drive. Your efforts will make a tangible difference in shaping the future of Warwickshire Fire and Rescue Service. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Kind Regards,

Gosia
